Empowering Hawaiians, Strengthening Hawai'i

2012 Office of Hawaiian Affairs Annual Report

‘ŌLELO A
KA LUNA
HO‘OMALU

Message from the Chairperson

Aloha mai kākou,

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs’ Annual Report for fiscal year 2012 is guided by our motto, “Empowering Hawaiians, Strengthening Hawai’i.”

As part of our continuing efforts to empower Hawaiians, OHA’s annual report is being published in Ka Wai Ola in addition to being available online and in booklet format. This ensures even greater transparency in our operations as we work to fulfill our statutory mandate to improve the conditions of Hawaiians.

The year ending June 30, 2012, has produced many notable achievements. Foremost among them is the settlement of a longstanding dispute over past-due revenues owed to OHA by the State of Hawai’i.

In 2012, the state – led by the Abercrombie Administration – agreed to a settlement transferring 30 acres in Kaka’ako Makai to OHA. Resolving three decades of past-due revenues was no easy feat; however, the state’s commitment to finally seeing it resolved was evident in the bill’s relatively swift passage, and in the fact that the bill passed unamended in both houses of the Legislature.

For this extraordinary achievement, I would like to extend my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to Governor Neil Abercrombie for his leadership, as well as to the members of the Hawai’i State Legislature for their continuing support.

I would also like to acknowledge the OHA Board of Trustees for its dedication and commitment to achieving this long-overdue settlement. In addition, I am grateful to the community and the various Native Hawaiian organizations, for were it not for their support, a resolution would not have been possible.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I would also like to recognize Clyde Nāmu’o, who retired in 2011 after 10 years as Administrator and CEO of OHA. During his tenure, he helped lay the groundwork for the past-due revenues settlement, and his service to the agency and its beneficiaries will bring positive results for many years to come.

As we move forward, we look to the leadership of his successor, Ka Pouhana Dr. Kamana’opono Crabbe. In the months and years ahead, we will forge and carry out plans for the use and development of the lands in Kaka’ako Makai – bringing to fruition a model of increased self-sufficiency. Let us build upon the successes of the past. And now, let the work begin.

E holomua pū kākou,

Colette Y. Machado

Aloha nō e nā hoa makamaka o Ke Ke'ena Kuleana Hawai'i,

Ke kahua ma mua, ma hope ke kūkulu.
The foundation first, the building afterwards.

When I was appointed Chief Executive Officer by the Office of Hawaiian Affairs' Board of Trustees in January 2012, I presented a vision — the foundation of my plan to Kūkulu Hou — to rebuild and reestablish OHA. This foundation starts by recognizing and revering the inherited mana of OHA, of those leaders and patriots who served before I took office in March 2012. They include previous administrators, such as Clyde Nāmu'o, who began fiscal year 2012 at the helm of our organization, and extends to advocates and trustees who have seen OHA through more than 30 years of striving to ho'oulu lāhui aloha, to raise a beloved nation.

As Ka Pouhana, I look to kūkulu o ka honua, kūkulu o ka lani — the pillars just below and above the horizon where we will continue to meet the sea and sky — to reach toward greater achievement for all of us as Kānaka 'Ōiwi.

On behalf of our staff and the Executive Team, I am pleased to present the Office of Hawaiian Affairs' fiscal year 2012 annual report highlighting major milestones and showcasing how we continue to build the organization amidst changing political, social, and economic challenges facing our people.

Among the notable milestones for the year:

On April 11, 2012, Senate Bill 2783 was signed into law by Governor Neil Abercrombie. The law transfers 30 acres of land on O'ahu in the area known as Kaka'ako Makai from the State of Hawai'i to OHA. Kaka'ako Makai is a vital cultural and historical resource for Native Hawaiians and the broader community.

OHA awarded more than $14 million in grants and sponsorships to support programs and services that fill critical needs in our Hawaiian communities including:

- $1.2 million addressing Ho'okahua Waiwai (Economic Self-Sufficiency)
- $666,000 addressing 'Āina (Land & Water)
- $3.8 million addressing Ho'ona'auao (Education)
- $591,000 addressing Ea (Governance)
- $1.3 million addressing Mo'omeheu (Culture)
- $1.4 million addressing Maui Ola (Health)

Part of any vision is the foundation on which it stands. The concept of mana and the practice of Kūkulu Hou is rooted in reaffirming our cultural beliefs and values. The goal of Kūkulu Hou is to reconstruct and rebuild vital avenues where resources can thrive, contributing to the reestablishment of our beloved nation. As we build toward the future, we will be challenged to reach higher and higher levels of competence and knowledge while venturing into new territories. We embrace these challenges and will continue to work together to build the mana of OHA and the Lāhui.

Mana is our legacy! Ho'oulu lāhui Hawai'i is our destiny!

'O au iho nō me ke aloha a me ka 'oia'i'o,

Mālama Loan

As the loan Administrator of the Native Hawaiian Revolving Loan Fund (NHRLF), the Office of Hawaiian Affairs partners with First Hawaiian Bank as a strategic lending partner to originate and service the OHA Mālama Loan program to Native Hawaiian consumers and businesses. The Native Hawaiian Revolving Loan Fund Board of Directors retain loan approval authority.

The Board's mission is to enhance access for all persons of Native Hawaiian ancestry to credit, capital, and financial services & skills so as to create jobs, wealth, and economic & social well-being for all the people of Hawai'i

In FY 2012, the OHA Mālama Loan program approved and disbursed the following:

OHA Advocacy Initiatives

OHA has been working to leverage its resources to achieve systemic change in priority areas for our beneficiaries. In 2012, OHA worked to refine how these initiatives can multiply our reach throughout the Native Hawaiian community with better efficiency to achieve the strategic results outlined in the OHA Strategic Plan 2010-2018.

The four priority areas advanced in 2012 were:

Mauli Ola

Decrease Chronic disease rates among Native Hawaiians

Ho'ona'auao

Native Hawaiians exceed Education Standards

Ho'okahua Waiwai

Increase family income among Native Hawaiians

Ho'okahua Waiwai

Stability in housing for Native Hawaiians,

OHA serves as an intermediary for expert community members and stakeholders to address disparate conditions of Native Hawaiians through a culturally-grounded, performance-based process. Our approach relies on OHA staff as collaborative working groups serving as cross-functional teams—working across the organization and with the community. Our processes expanded this year to include greater collaboration with other community partners: federal, state, city and county, private, and non-profit entities with similar goals.

Mauli Ola - Decrease Chronic Disease Rates among Native Hawaiians

The Health Advocacy Initiative seeks to improve information, recommendations, and a plan of action to guide OHA's efforts to decrease Native Hawaiian adult obesity rates to be equal to or less than the general population of Hawai'i.

The obesity rate among Native Hawaiians is not a health threat that can be eliminated overnight. The initiative will require OHA to overcome such challenges as the ubiquity and convenience of high-calorie foods. OHA is also aware that many Native Hawaiians may not have the time to be physically active or eat healthy foods because of long work hours, time spent commuting or responsibilities they are juggling.

The good news is that OHA's efforts to encourage Native Hawaiians to eat healthier and become more physically active coincide with increased awareness about the need to counter health risks associated with a lack of physical activity and proper nutrition. Such efforts provide OHA with an opportunity to engage all segments of the community and all levels of government in coordinated initiatives to reduce the obesity rate in the Native Hawaiian community.

OHA has also partnered with the community to engage policymakers, build public awareness and identify and support comprehensive solutions. Through Nā Limahana o Lonopūhā, the Native Hawaiian Health Consortium, OHA's partners include:

- The State of Hawai'i Department of Health
- The University of Hawai'i John A. Burns School of Medicine,

Department of Native Hawaiian Health

- The University of Hawai'i Myron B. Thompson School of Social Work
- Chaminade University
- The Queen's Health Systems
- Hawai'i Medical Service Association
- Papa Ola Lōkahi
- 'Imi Hale Native Hawaiian Cancer Network
- The Wai'anae Coast Comprehensive Health Center
- I Ola Lāhui Rural Hawaii Behavioral Health
- Kōkua Kalihi Valley Health Center
- Waimānalo Health Center

Ho'ona'auao - Native Hawaiians Exceed Education Standards

The Education Advocacy Initiative is finding ways to better prepare Native Hawaiians for a more diverse economy by connecting them to vital information that will help ensure they graduate college and land well-paying jobs. As the cost of a higher education continues to rise, OHA connects students with needed resources. Through OHA's Higher Education Scholarship Program, more than 300 students were awarded scholarships in FY 2012. Scholarship recipients each received between $1,000 and $4,500 to assist with the costs of tuition at about 80 institutions of higher learning, including Cornell University in New York, Stanford University in California and the University of Hawai'i. In addition, OHA helped sponsor a series of Scholarship 'Aha, scholarship fairs held statewide to help increase financial aid access amongst the Native Hawaiian community. Nearly 2,200 parents and students attended the sessions to learn more about financial aid and to meet with scholarship vendors. The results of the Scholarship 'Aha made college more affordable for many Native Hawaiians.

The initiative also sought to implement strategies to help Native Hawaiian students boost their scores in elementary, middle and high school testing.

This year, OHA's Community Grants awarded $250,000 in Education grants focused on increasing math and reading proficiency rates for Native Hawaiian middle and high school students.

OHA participates in both the Native Hawaiian Education Council and the Department of Education's Native Hawaiian Education Outcomes Council to improve the educational attainment of Native Hawaiians.

Ho'okahua Waiwai - Increase Family Income among Native Hawaiians

OHA's Income Advocacy Initiative is taking a strategic approach that focuses on supporting areas of asset building and financial education. By partnering with service providers, OHA was able to provide minimal funding with a maximum return by providing free tax preparation services to Hāna, Maui, residents through the IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program. Native Hawaiian families were assisted with filing their federal and state income-tax returns, which resulted in significant refunds for participating families.

The initiative strives to improve the economic well being of OHA beneficiaries by partnering and leveraging resources with existing programs and services, and advocating at the legislative level to improve the status quo.

During the 2012 grant cycle, OHA awarded more than $1,000,000 in grants to support economic self-sufficiency activities. This includes programs and services that help families budget, save and build assets.

Ho'okahua Waiwai - Stability in Housing for Native Hawaiians

Housing remains one of the most critical problems facing Native Hawaiians. The Housing Advocacy Initiative is seeking to increase the percentage of Native Hawaiians who own or rent a home. For renters, we are focusing on decreasing the number of renters who are paying more than 30% of their income for housing costs. For prospective homeowners, we are focused on increasing the number of Native Hawaiian owner-occupied housing.

In FY 2012, OHA awarded grants totaling $800,000 to various organizations supporting housing efforts, including $300,000 to Habitat for Humanity for home building and repair projects in West Hawai'i, Waimānalo and on Kaua'i. OHA provided a $417,350 grant to Nānākuli Housing Corporation to expand homeownership and provide financial literacy training.

Ke kahua ma mua, ma hope ke kūkulu.

The foundation first, the building afterwards.

2012 legislative review

The 2012 legislative session will be remembered by Native Hawaiians for the historic enactment of a law approving the transfer of $200 million in state lands at Kaka'ako Makai to OHA.

Native Hawaiians will also benefit from a number of other bills that were supported by OHA, including a measure improving the state's early childhood education system and a set of bills reforming Hawai'i's criminal justice system.

In addition, OHA successfully opposed a series of bills that would have rolled back protections to the state's natural and cultural resources and Native Hawaiian practices.

OHA 2012 Legislative Package

SCR 143

Adopted by the Legislature, Senate Concurrent Resolution 143 requests that the governor direct all state agencies to fully comply with federal guidelines governing racial and ethnic data collection. These federal guidelines require state agencies to place data for Native Hawaiians in the "Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander" category. The resolution also calls for this data to be made accessible to the public, which would help OHA and others to better understand the depth of Native Hawaiian health, socioeconomic, housing, employment and other issues.

HB 2875

House Bill 2875 would have required assessments for third- through sixth-grade Hawaiian Language Immersion Program students to be developed originally in the Hawaiian language.

Largely unwarranted concerns about funding prevented the bill from being formally enacted. However, spurred by the discussions initiated by HB2875, the state Department of Education has committed to a three-part plan to accomplish what HB 2875 would have required.

HB 2685

House Bill 2685 was designed to raise the asset limits for public assistance programs such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Medicaid and food stamps. Asset limits encourage low-income families to get rid of assets instead of accumulating them, which makes it difficult for those families to escape poverty and become self-sufficient. OHA proposed this bill because it would have improved the economic self-sufficiency of Native Hawaiians, who have the highest rate of poverty in the state at 12 percent.

HB 2685 was amended to require the Department of Human Services to conduct a study on the impacts of changing the asset limits. DHS is committed to conducting the study, despite the unfortunate fact that the bill died at the 11th hour.

HB 1984

House Bill 1984 would have formally recognized February as 'Ōlelo Hawai'i Month. The bill was written in both Hawaiian and English and would have been the first law published in 'Ōlelo Hawai'i since a 1943 law stopped laws from having to be printed in both languages.

Governor Abercrombie vetoed HB 1984 because the final version of the bill added an amendment requiring all state letterheads, documents and symbols to incorporate the correct spelling of Hawaiian words, including the accurate usage of Hawaiian diacritical markings. However, he committed to issuing a proclamation declaring February as 'Ōlelo Hawai'i Month and to creating a working group to determine the best way to implement the accurate usage of the Hawaiian language in state business.

Non-OHA Legislative Package Bills

SB 2545

Senate Bill 2545 establishes a state office and an advisory board focused on improving the state's education system for children ages five and under. OHA supported this bill because improving the state's early learning system is critical to ensuring that Native Hawaiian keiki are prepared developmentally and socially to succeed in school. The bill was passed by the Legislature and signed by the governor.

SB 755

Senate Bill 755 sought to exempt certain government or private projects from various state and county review or permitting requirements in the interest of promoting economic development. OHA opposed the bill to protect existing procedures that allow for a thorough review of the impacts these projects would have on the state's natural and cultural resources. The bill died in conference committee.

HB 2398

House Bill 2398 was designed to transfer the development rights of certain Honokōhau Harbor properties to the state's Public Land Development Corporation (PLDC). The bill also exempts the lands owned set aside for or leased by the PLDC from laws which ensure that the state manages its public lands in a responsible manner. OHA expressed concern that the transfer may be premature, as the PLDC was only recently formed and has no rules in place to guide its actions and projects.

The bill passed the legislature and was signed by the governor.

HB 2515 and SB 2776

House Bill 2515 is designed to allow probation instead of jail for certain second-time drug offenses and reduces the maximum probation for certain felonies from five to four years. Senate Bill 2776 reduces the delay in producing pretrial risk assessments, increases the membership of the Hawai'i Paroling Authority and increases victim restitution payments.

Both bills were passed by the legislature and signed by the governor.

OHA's Mission Statement

To mālama (protect) Hawai'i's people and environmental resources and OHA's assets, toward ensuring the perpetuation of the culture, the enhancement of lifestyle and the protection of entitlements of Native Hawaiians, while enabling the building of a strong and healthy Hawaiian people and nation, recognized nationally and internationally.

Grants and Sponsorships

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs' Grants and Sponsorships programs has long been the cornerstone of the agency's community giving.

In FY 2012, OHA awarded $14.17 million. Nearly 200 programs across the state received funding, and all are as diverse as the communities and the needs they serve – ranging from a health fair in Hāna to a program providing job-training and placement services for Hawaiians incarcerated on O'ahu and Hawai'i Island.

At the same time, OHA continued to deliver on its promise to provide $3 million a year for 30 years to the state Department of Hawaiian Home Lands as it works to put more Hawaiian families into stable housing. OHA also continued providing critical funding support to its longtime partners Alu Like, Inc. and Nā Pua No'eau in their respective efforts to provide social services for those in need and educational services for gifted and talented students.

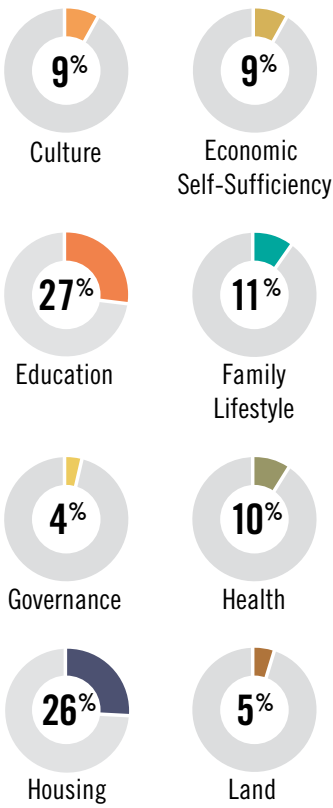

In the past year, OHA embraced a new approach to grant funding. This new focus – which places paramount importance on achieving systemic change and measurable results – is exemplified with the launch of the Granting for Results program and Community Partners Program.

Under Granting for Results, funds are awarded to programs that directly align with 8 of 10 OHA's strategic results for improving conditions of Native Hawaiians. The program employs performance-based criteria to measure effectiveness and encourages initiatives that lead to systemic change and that maximizes the impact to Hawaiians. OHA's familiar grant initiatives – Kauhale, Kaiāulu community projects, Kamoku economic-development projects (formerly known as CBED) and 'Ahahui community events – fall under this program.

The Community Partners Program represents a new dimension to OHA's approach. Here, efforts underscore the agency's advocacy initiatives, which work to address targeted needs in the Hawaiian community. Under this program, OHA has partnered with nonprofit organizations to achieve specific, agency-defined goals in the areas of education, health and family income.

After more than two decades of carrying extra weight, Geri Kaleponi is running out of options to solve her most vexing problem: shedding at least 30 unwanted pounds.

The 52-year-old Pālolo Valley resident, Who regularly eats grilled-cheese sandwiches with Spam for breakfast, has tried walking 30 minutes a day while cutting back on some foods and eating smaller portions of others. But she hasn't lost the pounds needed to reduce her risk of weight-related health problems, such as high cholesterol and diabetes.

Now she is playing one of her remaining cards: a weight-management program called Kūlana Hawai'i.

"The Kūlana Hawai'i program is about helping people live longer through modest weight-loss goals," said Aukahi Austin, Executive Director of I Ola Lāhui.

To achieve that, the program is relying on three health professionals to help patients reach small, reasonable weight-loss goals. A health psychologist, nutritionist and certified fitness instructor work with patients for a year.

"We're taking the shame out of losing weight," Austin said. "What we've found is that guilt and shame are ineffective strategies for losing weight because they can't be sustained. Instead, we practice health psychology. We practice in a culturally mindful way that is relevant to Native Hawaiians."

Hawai'i Kākou

In November 2011, a new 64-foot-long mural of indigenous Hawaiian imagery greeted the eyes and the senses of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation visitors and their entourages at the Hawai'i Convention Center. Five top Native Hawaiian artists, joined by accomplished art students from nine island schools, collaborated to paint the mana'o, the thoughts, of the community in a mural planned for permanent display at the center.

Ideas were gathered beginning in August at the 10th annual Native Hawaiian Convention. And everyone in Hawai'i could add their ideas – political, personal or spiritual concepts and suggestions were all welcomed.

For seven days, from Oct. 5 to 11, art magic happened in paint on canvas, stretched across a long swath of the convention center. The completed Arting in Place mural, funded by the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, is titled Hawai'i Loa Kū Like Kākou, (Hawai'i Kākou).

Lead artist Meleanna Meyer, joined by Solomon Enos, Harinani Orme, Kahi Ching and Al Lagunero headed the collaboration.

Until 2011, the 21-member APEC had not had a meeting in the U.S. for almost 20 years. Delegates may not have had a deep understanding of the wealth of arts and culture in Hawai'i when they arrived. But, Meyer says, they departed with a "visual experience of the gathering of world economies in our homeland." As she describes it, artists painted "the importance of evoking ancestral wisdom for guidance in our lives and our world as a whole." Hawai'i was represented on the world stage, authentically through culture, where the arts and the artists become active players in their own destinies.

Sponsorships

The Office of Hawaiian Affairs is regularly approached to sponsor events that address the needs of the Native Hawaiian Community. A sponsorship provides financial or other assistance (goods or services) in support of an activity or event.

OHA is committed to making a difference in the lives of Native Hawaiians. Sponsorships are generally awarded to support various community events that serve or support Native Hawaiians or increase awareness of Hawaiian culture and history.
