

A COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT SERIES

Crafting a Resolution

The Hawaiian Civic Club movement founded by Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalanianaʻole in 1918 has served as a voice for the Hawaiian community to address the challenges of the day.

Please join us in learning how you can draw attention to an issue you are passionate about that may need a larger voice!

This workshop will cover the basics of resolution drafting, best-practices, and more specifically the guidelines for submitting Resolutions for the 2016 Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs General Convention.

What: Resolution Writing Workshop

When: Saturday, April 9, 2016
10 am – 2 pm

Where: Kapaa Public Library
Conference Room
1464 Kuhio Hwy
Kapa`a, HI 96746

Reserve your spot today!

ABOUT

Anthony Makana Paris is a Native Hawaiian from Nānākuli now residing in Papakōlea, O'ahu. Makana is life member of Prince Kūhiō Hawaiian Civic Club and serves as the Parliamentarian of both the club and the O'ahu Council of Hawaiian Civic Clubs. Makana served on staff for the Hawai'i State Senate Judiciary and Labor committees. He is currently in his last semester at UH Law School and is a '98 Kamehameha Schools graduate. Makana is also a farmer,

For information on this event, please contact OHA's Community Outreach Coordinator:

D. Kaliko Santos | Phone: (808) 241-3390 | Email: dkalikos@oha.org or
Hawaiian Civic Club member Julie Kanealii at ahahuimoikeha@gmail.com