IV. OLD BUSINESS

A. 2018 OHA Legislative Package Updates – Matrix 2

Jocelyn Doane (JD) and Wayne Tanaka (WT) present item IV. A.

JD mentions that the package bills are doing okay. The Public Land Trust bill has a hearing on Friday in Ways and Means (WAM). Finance still needs to hold a hearing for the bill but there is still time. All of the rest of our package bills are still alive except one of the cultural reserves bills. All of them can still move if they get a hearing by March 2.

JD concludes the presentation on item IV. A. and moves on to V. A.

JD begins her presentation speaking about bills that name OHA.

JD then moves on to New Significant Bills.

Trustees spent most of their time discussing the OHA Elections bill and the Mauna Kea Management Authority bill. Most of the issues/questions in the bill were related to process should these bills pass. How would the implementation of the bills go forward?

JD shared her knowledge of the bills and the process outlined in the bill. She did mention that if further questions arose, OHA would need to seek the answers from the Office of Elections (SB 1303) or the Governor's office (SB 3090).

Trustee H. Lindsey (T. H. Lindsey) asked to separate SB 3090 out as she would like to vote no.

CA requests a motion to approve:
