

Nā Hanana o OHA

Honoring the contributions of King Kalākaua toward the perpetuation of Hawaiian culture and Native rights

Cultural Workshops during the 61st Merrie Monarch Hula Festival

All events will be held at Mokupāpapa Discovery Center in Hilo.
76 Kamehameha Ave. (corner of Kamehameha and Waiānuenuē Ave.)

Wednesday, April 3

Story Telling Workshop

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Join the storytelling workshop for a captivating sharing of mo'olelo from Keaukaha native, Manaiakalani Kalua, a haku mele and kumu hula for Akaunu.

Thursday, April 4

Ulana Lauhala Workshop

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Join us for Ulana Lauhala (pandanus weaving) with 'Aha Pūhala o Puna. Learn about the various types of hala and preparations to start any ulana project. Class will also have a hands-on learning experience making your own lauhala fans to take home with you.

Friday, April 5

'Ohe Kapala Workshop

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Join Nalu Andrade of Nā Maka Kahiko as he brings 20+ years of experience of carving 'ohe kāpala and makau wearable arts. Enjoy a hands on learning experience and make your own 'ohe kāpala earrings or hair pick.

RSVP is required. Space is limited. Register online for the in-person workshops at www.oha.org/MerrieMonarch2024

Visit our OHA information table at the Merrie Monarch Craft Fair | April 3-5 at the Ahfook Civic Auditorium